Browser-based Application Security

Problem Overview

Browser-based Application Security

Detailed Description

If using the browser-based applications, we highly recommend using Windows authentication to control access to the LDVR and LNVR video servers. If using browser-based applications, disable parent paths for the Web server for heightened security.

Applies To

OnGuard (All versions)

Additional Information

None