Problem Overview

Panasonic Camera Model Numbers in the Device Discovery Console (OG-17442)

Detailed Description

Some Panasonic cameras are displayed by their series number rather than their model number in the Device Discovery Console. These cameras will not display their camera model numbers, but instead they display the series of the camera. For example, the Panasonic NS954 is part of the WV-NS950 series and would be displayed as a Panasonic NS950. For a list of Panasonic camera display names, refer to the Device Discovery Console User Guide.
